IN THE HIGH COURT OF PUNJAB & HARYANA AT CHANDIGARH

CWP NO. 18563 of 2005

DATE OF DECISION: 6.3.2007

Neelam Kumari ..Petitioner.

Versus

State of Punjab and others ....Respondents.

CORAM: HON'BLE MR.JUSTICE J.S. KHEHAR
HON'BLE MR. JUSTICE S.D. ANAND

PRESENT: Mr.Rajesh Girdhar, Advocate for the petitioner.

Mr.B.S. Chahal, AAG, Punjab,
for the respondents.

J.S. Khehar, J. (oral)

Learned counsel for the respondents states, that the petitioner has already been deputed to the Intermediate School Course, and as such, the prayer made in the instant writ petition to the aforesaid effect, has been rendered infructuous. Learned counsel for the petitioner acknowledges the aforesaid factual position.

So far as the grant of consequential benefits, after the petitioner successfully completes the Intermediate School Course, is concerned, learned counsel for the respondents states, that the claim of the petitioner for consequential benefits can only be considered after she has qualified the Intermediate School Course. Learned counsel for the petitioner acknowledges this position as well.

In view of the above, the instant writ petition is disposed of with a direction to the respondents to consider the claim of the petitioner for consequential benefits within one month of her successfully completing the Intermediate School Course.

Disposed of in the aforesaid terms.
